

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

• Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Who is your buddy?

Learning Outcome

Describe ways of solving problems and getting things done in written and spoken situations and in work and social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Do you have any friends who you only do certain activities with? What activities do you do together?
- Is it better to have one good friend to do things with or several specialized friends? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about friendship, emotions and behavior.
- I can use proper intonation in short questions and statements.
- I can say and use words like "fare" and "fair", "pear" and "pair".

Let's Explore!

David and Mark had a terrible falling out. They are not friends anymore. Richard is my movie buddy and Joe is my golfing buddy*.

* A "falling out" is a quarrel or disagreement.

 A "buddy" is a close friend who often does specialized activities with you.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: So where is this place exactly, near the fairgrounds, isn't it?
Vanessa: Yeah, but don't worry we'll meet at my restaurant and I'll take you there.
Peter: Just to be sure, the tickets are free, right?
Vanessa: No Peter. Yours are double! Yes, the tickets are free. Their facility has a bar and some food stands, but I'm just getting you the tickets. You are coming, aren't you?
Peter: I gladly accept your invitation.
Vanessa: Peter. I envy you sometimes.
Peter: For my winning smile, boyish charm and perfect hair?
Vanessa: No, I'm jealous of your complete lack of social awareness. Is it as freeing as it seems?
Peter: Hahaha. V. I'm just kidding. Relax. It's fair.
Sally: Umm. So, who else is on the team?
Vanessa: I would like four more people if possible. We could ask Denise and Donald, couldn't we?
Vanessa: Unfortunately, They're out of town this weekend.
Sally: Ron and Peggy. They are in town, aren't they?
Peter: Didn't you and Peggy have a falling out ?
Sally: Oh, right!
Sally: Well, there is Becky and Hank. They're really athletic. How many triathlons have they been in?
Peter: We aren't running a triathlon, are we? We are just throwing things at a wall. We don't need Mr. and Mrs. health and fitness.
Sally: Hmmm. Who do you suggest Peter? You have a lot of friends, don't you?
Peter: Only you guys. Invite anyone, except Camilla.
Vanessa: Hmmm. Is Camilla's number in my phone?
Peter: Funny!

Let's Practice!

It's time to learn some important expressions.

Instructions: Read the sentences. Practice the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. I'm jealous of your complete lack of social awareness.
2. Didn't you and Peggy have a falling out?
3. I gladly accept your invitation.
4. I'm just kidding.
5. Just to be sure, the tickets are free, right?

Let's Practice!

What are they asking?

Instructions: Match the left halves with the right halves to complete each sentence. Practice reading the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

- | | |
|--|------------------------------------|
| 1. Where is this place exactly, near the fairgrounds | ☐ it seems? |
| 2. The tickets are free, | ☐ isn't it? |
| 3. Who do you suggest, | ☐ Peter? |
| 4. Who else is on the | ☐ right? |
| 5. Is it as freeing as | ☐ team? |

Extension Activity

Make a buddy poster!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Use pictures from the Internet or your own personal pictures to make a 'buddy collage'.
- Include pictures of all the activities you and your buddies do. (If you don't have buddies, create some to put on the poster.) Include at least five people in your collage.
- Label your buddies, i.e. "golf buddy", "tennis buddy" etc.
- Get into groups and present your buddy collage.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I talk about friends and activities that they can do together.

☐ ☐

I talk about specialized friends.

☐ ☐

I share my findings with a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to accept (verb): to answer affirmatively
e.g. I am happy to accept your invitation.
- fair (noun): a type of entertainment in a field or park at which people can ride on large machines and play games to win prizes
e.g. Do you want to ride the ferris wheel at the fair?
- fair (adjective): equitable; just e.g. I think it's fair that she gets to borrow the book next.
- except (preposition): not including someone or something e.g. Invite anyone, except Camilla.
- falling out (noun): a fight leading to separation
e.g. Didn't you and Peggy have a falling out?
- social awareness (noun): to be conscious or aware of the problems within a society or community
e.g. I'm jealous of your complete lack of social awareness.

Learning Points

Homonyms, Homophones and Homographs

Homonyms is the word often used for both Homophones and Homographs. Homophones are words that sound the same, but have different spellings and meanings. Homographs are words that are spelled the same, but have different meanings or are pronounced differently.

Homophones	Example 1	Example 2
	there (a place) their (possessive) they're (they are contraction)	fair (equitable) fare (ticket for a bus) fair (circus, exhibition)

Homographs	Meaning in Noun Form	Meaning in Verb Form
bear	a kind of animal	to carry date	a kind of fruit; a calendar time	determine the age; go out with hide	animal skin	to conceal
address	where you live	to give a speech
desert	dry place	abandon

Examples:

- So where is this place exactly, near the fairgrounds, isn't it?
Relax. It's fair.

- I'll take you there.

Their facility has a bar and some food stands, but I'm just getting you the tickets.

They're out of town this weekend.

- For my winning smile, boyish charm and perfect hair?

I would like four more people if possible.

- Invite anyone, except Camilla.

I gladly accept your invitation.

Learning Points

Intonation of Statements, Short Questions and Question Tags

Statements go down as you progress through the sentence. Short questions go up at the end of the sentence. Tag questions go up at the end of the question when the speaker doesn't know the answer. Tag questions go down at the end of the question when the speaker feels they know the answer.

Practice saying these sentences with the intonation going down or up.

Statement	Short question	Tag Question (answer known)	Tag Question (answer unknown)
The tickets are free.	The tickets are free, right?	The tickets are free, aren't they?	The tickets are free, aren't they?
Camilla's number is on my phone.	Is Camilla's number on my phone?	Camilla's number is on my phone isn't it?	Camilla's number is on my phone isn't it?

